

25 July 2025

To: All Shareholders in Royal London GMAP Dynamic Equity Fund (the “Fund”), sub-fund of Royal London Multi Asset Funds ICVC

Dear Shareholder

We, Royal London Unit Trust Managers Limited, as Authorised Corporate Director (“ACD”) are writing to you as an investor in the Fund. We are notifying you of changes to the comparator benchmark which came into effect on 30 June 2025. Details of the change is set out below, including the list of all share classes impacted by the changes in Appendix One.

You do not need to take any action, however we recommend that you read this letter.

1. Changes to the Comparator benchmark

We have made changes to the comparator benchmark for this Fund. A full breakdown of the comparator benchmark can be found in the table below. This change will not change the Fund’s risk profile or significantly alter the way in which the Fund is currently invested or the available investment universe.

The change to the comparator benchmarks reflects an update, following a review, to the UK and global equity components. We have decided to reduce the global exposure by 2.5% and reallocate to the UK. This is due to our analysis that suggests that global equities are currently expensive relative to the UK and there is a heavy concentration to a small number of US (mainly technology) stocks. We have also considered the global political risk in making this change.

The change is intended to deliver better opportunities for delivering the returns in a risk-controlled manner in line with the Fund’s stated objective.

Summary of change:

- Update of Composite Benchmark as per below:

Royal London GMAP Dynamic Equity Fund
Composite Benchmark Constituent Index	Weighting in composite (from 30 June 2025) %	Weighting in composite (prior to 30 June 2025) %
